SLATGHTER OF BIRDS

New York, April 3.—A revolt has arted among a number of citizens of ew York against the indiscriminate New York against the Indiscriminate slaughter of birds at the tournament of the interstate association, which is now in progress at Interstate Park, L. L. and it is said a movement has been started to secure legislation prohibiting such events. Among the leaders in the movement is Ralph Waldo Trine, the Boston author, who is now living in New York. The promoters of the movement will take the stand that such tournaments are not sport and that a true sporting man ought to be disgusted at such slaughter. Mr. Trine has always been a lover of animals and is something of a naturalist.

"I regret very much," he said last night, "that nothing can be done to prevent the present slaughter, but a number of citizens here are in favor of bringing a bill before the legislature to make such crackly impossible. I cannot understand how people can call the

There is grief in the heart and home of Herman Bamberger. He will wear the customary period and those who desire to view the remains are respectfully requested to call any time after the taxidermist get through with them, a member of the home circle, one whose voice, though cracked, as dearly loved, has passed across the river where there are no mekkeys and no occasions for talking too much.

For the enty years P. Parrott had been, intimately associated with Mr. Bamberger and sociated with Mr. Bamberger and twenty years and twenty ammore P. Prott had been calling bis friends by name, bad been reveiling in crackers and twenty ammore P. Prott had been calling bis friends by name, bad been reveiling to crackers and tootee, had been whistling meny tunes and having innocent fun. And now P. Parrott has departed this life. The beginning of the end came some months ago, when this valued member of the family began to wheeze and smile. Asthma set in and the end smile.
